

Higher Education Scholarships
for Armenian Students in/from Developing Countries 2023

Requirements, criteria and conditions

The Armenian Communities department of the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation encourages students of Armenian origin in/from less developed countries (e.g. Lebanon and other countries in the Middle East) to obtain higher education degrees in any field at a recognized university in their own country of residence or abroad. Up to thirty-five new scholarships will be provided per year for a maximum of three years. Each scholarship will be for a fixed sum of 4000 EUR. Degrees in the social sciences will be privileged in 2023.

Requirements for eligibility

Candidates wishing to apply for a Calouste Gulbenkian Higher Education Scholarship must meet the following requirements:

- Be of Armenian origin.
- Be no more than 25 years old at the time of the application.
- Have outstanding examination and/or school results.
- Be enrolled or accepted in a higher education institution, duly recognized by the local national authorities, in their own country of residence or at a university in Armenia.
- Candidates must declare to the Foundation if they receive other scholarships to obtain their degrees.

If you do not meet these requirements then you are unlikely to be successful in your application

Selection criteria

The students will be selected by the staff of the Armenian Communities Department through a competitive process, based on merit. However, financial circumstances will be taken into account if such information is provided by the applicant.

This scholarship category is principally for undergraduate students, but graduate students will also be considered, especially if the subject matter is in the social sciences.

Conditions for maintaining the Calouste Gulbenkian Higher Education Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded for one academic year paid in a single instalment. Students must apply for the renewal of the scholarship — if the letter of agreement so stipulates — on a yearly basis, for a maximum period of three academic years for undergraduate degrees and for a maximum period of two academic years for Master degrees, if satisfactory progress is made in the chosen studies. Students must submit transcripts and/or reports of progress attesting to the advancement of their studies.

The scholarship may be terminated for the breach of the terms of the agreement to be signed by the successful applicants with the Foundation. In this case the candidate must reimburse the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation the amount received.

Data Protection

All personal data provided in the application process or during project implementation shall be treated exclusively for the purpose of managing the Higher Education Scholarship by Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation (CGF), as the entity acting as joint controller for processing the data.

The CGF may be contacted regarding any questions related to data processing carried out in this context and for these purposes through privacidade@gulbenkian.pt.

The personal data of the subject shall be kept for the period of time necessary for the management of the grant, except in cases where another period is required by applicable law. Some data (i.e. the name of the subject, date of application, terms and duration of the grant and personal data potentially included in the works and final publications) will be kept indefinitely by the CGF for the purpose of conservation of relevant information in the context of its relevant cultural assets.

The subject may, at any time, withdraw his/her consent for the processing of his/her personal data, in accordance with the applicable legislation, without prejudice to the validity of the processing made based on the consent previously given. The withdrawal of the consent implies that the CGF cannot treat his/her personal data for the purposes consented to and as such may result in the impossibility of the applicant continuing as such in the application.

The controller guarantee the subjects the exercise of their rights in relation to their personal data, such as the right of access, rectification, erasure, opposition, limitation of treatment and portability, according to the applicable legislation.

The controller implement all security measures necessary and adequate for the protection of the personal data of the subjects, either when the data is processed directly by them or when the data is processed by entities subcontracted by it.

The controller may treat personal data collected in this context directly and / or through subcontractors for the purpose of managing the grant. In such cases, appropriate contracts shall be entered into with such subcontracting entities, in accordance with the applicable legislation.

In the scope and for the purposes of managing the grant, the CGF may communicate the data of the subject to partner entities for publications and institutional communications. These entities may be located within the territory of the European Union or abroad, and in the latter case, appropriate mechanisms under the applicable legislation to safeguard the security of personal data processed shall be used at all times.

The subjects may file a complaint to the Portuguese National Authority ("Comissão Nacional de Proteção de Dados") if they believe that there is a breach of data protection incurred by the joint controllers.
